

Swaddling in style (and comfort)

New parents quickly figure out a tightly swaddled baby is a happy baby. Bambino Land has created a line of organic 100-percent cotton swaddling blankets with a finely woven dual layer of muslin that creates a waffle effect when washed and gets softer with each wash.

They are large in size, which gives you the option to use for multiple purposes: after the swaddling phase, use as a privacy shield for car rides, a sun shade or as a summertime blanket.

The blankets are offered in a variety of colors and patterns at www.BambinoLand.com.

Not-your-average burp cloths

Celebrities have discovered Maisey Mae and you should, too. The Maisey Mae Gift set includes a burp cloth and two coordinating bibs that are available in a variety of patterns and colors. The burp cloths are made of ultra-durable, 100-percent bright white cotton cloth diapers and can withstand hundreds of washings and visits to the dryer.

The coordinating bibs are extra long to catch dribbles and backed with chenille. Burp cloths and bibs can be monogrammed as well. Shop at www.maiseymae.com or take a trip to Tastes of New England in Durham.
